PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The DiscoverLaw.org Pre-Law Undergraduate Scholars (PLUS) Program establishes a supportive learning community that encourages college students to reach for success and provides a foundational understanding for students seeking to become a lawyer. The five (5)-week residential program will:

- Develop academic principles to prepare students to be successful in upper division courses and graduate school.
- Introduce students to professional development skills necessary to be an attorney.
- Encourage students to serve their community and demonstrate how to use their skills effectively.
